

The image shows a 10x10 grid representing a 2D environment. The top half (rows 1-5) is yellow, representing a 'free' area. The bottom half (rows 6-10) is dark blue, representing an 'occupied' area. The boundary between them is irregular, with some yellow cells extending into the blue area and some blue cells extending into the yellow area.

