

The heatmap displays a 10x10 grid of colored squares. The colors represent values, with a scale from dark purple (low) to yellow (high). The grid shows a pattern of high values in the top-left and bottom-right corners, with a diagonal band of moderate values.

