

The figure displays a 10x10 grid of colored squares, where each square represents a value in a 2D plane. The color scale ranges from dark purple (low values) to yellow (high values). The grid shows a complex pattern of values, with a prominent dark purple region in the bottom-left and a yellow region in the top-right.

