

A 10x10 grid representing a heatmap of a 2D function. The grid is composed of colored squares: yellow (top-left and top-right), green (middle-left and middle-right), teal (center), and purple (bottom-left and bottom-right). The colors transition from yellow at the top to purple at the bottom, with green and teal in the middle.

